Curtin University

"We were doing a lot of manual entry which wasn't a good use of our time. We needed to move towards a more automated process that would eliminate double entry and allow for seamless communication across different roles within our department."

University of Denver

"We were able to enhance our customer experience thanks to Momentus' easy to use event planning functionality."

University of Calgary

"Momentus is a true partner to Boston College - from quick response times on user issues to customised solutions to meet our unique business needs, they always respond with a "can do" attitude which is most appreciated!"

Boston College

"Our favorite feature would be the online request forms. Having the ability for our clients to be able to request space in real time was a game changer. We were able to streamline a rather tedious process to become a lot more time efficient."
